Dear Mr. Tardio

Mr. Moore has forwarded me your letter dated January 28, 2014, for a response. Suffice it to say. I told the Court that "We are providing informal discovery to the parties who are participating in mediation". My understanding is that you have not yet agreed to mediation and therefore the Court ordered discovery stay of discovery and other actions against the NECC estate and our confidentiality agreement with the PSC governs your request. Should you join the mediation program, we will promptly address your request and make an appropriate production, as I represented to the Court.

Mike
